

Adjunct Instructors - Mobile Center

Faulkner University is seeking to add to its pool of qualified individuals who would like to teach courses at our Mobile Center. This is an open invitation to apply for the Mobile Center Adjunct Instructor Candidate Pool. Individuals with experience and appropriate degrees in instructional areas offered at Faulkner University are encouraged to apply.

Candidates must be available on a part time basis to augment the instructional opportunities and needs for Faulkner's daytime, evening and weekend credit courses.

Instructors with pre-identified competencies will be chosen from the Adjunct Instructor Candidate Pool to participate in additional application/selection processes as specific needs arise for credit courses and project assignments. Adjunct instructors may be employed to teach courses, make presentations, and provide facilitation or other service activities.

Please refer to www.faulkner.edu/admissions/mobile.asp for descriptions of current programs and course offerings at Faulkner's Mobile Center. These descriptions will help you identify to us areas you feel your education and experience qualify you to teach or provide support.
