

FAULKNER UNIVERSITY

LICENSURE AND CERTIFICATION FACT SHEET

MASTER OF ARTS/SCIENCE IN SPEECH LANGUAGE PATHOLOGY

Connecticut

WEBSITE: <https://www.asha.org/advocacy/state/info/ct/licensure/>

CONTACT INFORMATION:

Name: Chris Andresen
Email Address: oplcdph@ct.gov
Telephone Number: 860-509-7603

DETERMINATION:

Does the Faulkner University MA/MS in SLP program, which is accredited by ASHA/CAA, meet the educational requirements for initial licensure as a Speech Language Pathologist in Connecticut?

Yes

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR LICENSURE:

Completed a minimum of 36 weeks and 1,080 hours of full-time professional employment or 48 weeks and 1,440 hours of part-time employment in speech pathology under supervision of a licensed or certified speech pathologist; Passage of an NTE Specialty Area Test (by ETS) Completed a minimum of 36 weeks and 1,080 hours of full-time professional employment or 48 weeks and 1,440 hours of part-time employment in speech pathology under supervision of a licensed or certified speech pathologist; Passage of an NTE Specialty Area Test (by ETS)

STATE VERIFICATION:

Has Connecticut verified the above determination made by Faulkner University?

No response as of June 1, 2024

DISCLAIMER:

The institution has used its best judgment to make the determination whether or not this program meets the requirements for obtainment of licensure. Furthermore, this determination is made annually and this page was most recently updated June 1, 2024. It is recommended the student check with the contact information provided above to ensure obtainment of licensure can be achieved.