Associate Minister Position

The Oak Hill Church of Christ in Rome, GA is seeking a dedicated and passionate individual to join our ministry team as an Associate Minister. Oak Hill is a congregation of about 225 people with 6 elders. Primary responsibilities of the Associate Minister will include working with our young people, the visitation program, and other teaching opportunities. The ideal candidate will possess strong spiritual leadership qualities, able to build relationships within the membership and community, excellent communication skills, and a deep commitment to the teaching of the Bible. This position involves assisting the Pulpit Minister in various duties, supporting the spiritual growth of the congregation, and actively participating in community outreach programs.

We are searching for a man who is a student of scripture, works well with others, and who is committed to the mission of the church. In addition, a man who has a strong adherence to biblical authority and church doctrine, possesses excellent communication skills, and can develop a planned and purposeful approach to ministry. Furthermore, we are searching for a man who desires to work under the oversight of the elders and work closely with the senior minister in a team approach. A bachelor's degree, particularly in Bible or ministry is preferred. This is a full-time salary position with benefits commensurate with education and experience.
